

Department of Near Eastern Studies
Islam, Empire, and Modernity: Turkey from the Caliphs
to the 21st Century [HA]

Description and Objective:

A seminar begins with ancient civilizations and ends with Turkey in the twenty-first century. It provides an analysis of change and continuity in Turkish society with a strong focus on history. Emphasis will also be on major cultural transformations. The compression of so much history and culture into a six-week seminar necessitates certain choices and omissions, as well as the privileging of trends and analyzes over facts and figures. Students read at least one book on a major subject to be discussed in the course.

Requirements/Grading:

Students will be graded on one oral presentation, two 2-3 page research papers, a 15-20 page final paper, and their performance on the language component.

Arrival:

Weekend of June 21-22, 2008

Settling in
